PROFILE

Nine and a half years at the SAIT Students' Association, working up from front-of-house to leading communications for a 15,000-member organization; by the end, functioning simultaneously as communications specialist, IT administrator, webmaster, and governance technologist. I bridge the gap between creative and technical work, and I build systems other people can run without me.

EXPERIENCE

Communications Specialist

Sep 2016 - Mar 2026

SAIT Students' Association (SAITSA), Calgary

Progressed from bartender through graphic designer, senior graphic designer, and assistant manager of marketing and communications; led by influence and feedback across every department.

- Developed and executed multi-channel communications strategies across web, email, SMS, print, social media, and advertising for 15,000+ students.
- Built the Tedi Hotline SMS channel end to end; now valued at $5K per semester in sponsorship.
- Rebuilt the student bulletin email template; zero code edits required per issue since.
- Brand steward across two distinct organizational brands; created sub-brands and campaigns for programming and services.
- Designed and produced the annual report, a 120-page student survival guide, and campaign materials spanning governance, events, and services.
- Led the organization's website redesign (Divi to Brizy migration) as sole webmaster of the WordPress ecosystem.
- Google Workspace Super Admin for the organization; administered org-wide Bitwarden and ClickUp rollouts.
- Led cybersecurity incident response with zero critical downtime.
- Built elections nomination infrastructure from scratch: candidate submission forms, endorsement workflows, and eligibility tracking.
- Provided real-time crisis communications during the 2025 Calgary Mayoral Debate, hosted by SAITSA.
- Conducted PIPA compliance monitoring and authored a governance risk assessment.
- Managed a direct report plus freelancers and contractors; supported events from club expos to 1,000-patron concerts.

Creative Director & Web Developer

May 2022 - Present

Little Super Dangerous, Calgary

- Built and run littlesuperdangerous.com: WordPress, e-commerce, and content scheduling for an independent band.
